Murmu seeks backing of JMM for presidential race

Drithiman Ray | TNN

Ranchi: The ruling JMM in Jharkhand on Monday laid out the red carpet for NDA's presidential candidate Droupadi Murmu, a move that marks an embarrassment for the opposition's joint candidate Yashwant Sinha. A likely switch of support of the Sorens to the NDA candidate comes after the statement of TMC chief and West Bengal CM Manu Samanta Banerjee, who had said that she could have considered supporting Murmu if BJP had taken her into confidence before announcing its candidate. Sinha's name was proposed by Manama Odisha CM Naven Patnaik was first from among the non-NDA block to pledge support to Murmu, who hails from the state. Signs of rethink along with Mamata's friendly vibes towards Murmu suggest that NDA's choice may mark an important step towards the emergence of the constituency of tribals spread across states. Bhupesh Baghel, CM of Congress-ruled Chhattisgarh, also supported the idea of a tribal making it to the top constitutional office, though he said that he would have opted for Anusuya Oike, BJP MP from his state. Murmu has also received support from BSP, JDS and Akali Dal. During the meeting with the Sorens, Murmu asked for the support of their party's lawmakers. JMM has 30 MLAs and two MPs. On July 7, Mahua Majhi who won the Raipur Sabha election, will be sworn in as the third MP. Murmu, who was Jharkhand's governor for six years, met Hemant and Shibu along with Union tribal affairs minister Arjun Munda and Union minister of state Anupurna Devi.

'Builder didn't get chance to rebut findings'

Appeals against NGT orders are to be filed directly to the SC.

Appearing for Sarvag Buildingtech, senior advocate Neeraj K Kaal told the court that the NGT bench led by chairperson Justice Adarsh K Goel blindly relied on the report of the joint committee, without giving an opportunity to the builder to rebut the findings, and went ahead with imposing an arbitrary penalty in breach of the SC's guidelines on acceptance of reports of such committees by the tribunal.

Present NGT chairperson Goel, when he was a judge of the SC, had in 2017-18 stoutly and repeatedly opposed the appointment of Kant, then a Punjab and Haryana HC judge, as chief justice of the Himachal Pradesh HC on certain unverified property related allegations. Goel's reservations were overruled and Kant was appointed C.J.

Later, when Kant's name was being considered for appointment as a judge in the SC, activist lawyer-activist Rhusban had written to then C.J Ranjan Gogoi opposing it. However, Gogoi overruled the objections and the collegium headed by him recommended Kant's appointment as SC Judge, which he became on May 24, 2019.

Sr IPS officer held for role in recruitment scam in Karnataka

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Bengaluru: Senior IPS officer Anuraj Paul, who is additional director-general of police (internal security division), was arrested here on Monday on suspicion of involvement in the police sub-inspector (PSI) recruitment scam. It is the first time in recent history in Karnataka that such a high ranking police officer has been arrested.

Paul, questioned four times by the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) over his alleged involvement, headed the Karnataka police recruitment cell before being shunted out two months ago. He was subjected to a medical examination at the state-run Bowring hospital and produced before a court which remanded him in police custody for 10 days.

Paul came under the scanner following the recruitment scam in which around 50 candidates secured top ranks by indulging in malpractices, including tampering with the OMR (optical mark recognition) sheets after colluding with middle men and some police officers handling recruitment.

Restaurants, hotels barred from levying service charge

Dipak Dash@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: The Central Consumer Protection Authority (CPA) on Monday barred hotels and restaurants from levying service charges automatically or by default in food bills. It allowed customers to file complaints in case of violation with the consumer commissions, including through e-daakshin, and even district collectors.

The authority set up under the Consumer Protection Act, has issued detailed guidelines specifying the duties of caterers and the rights of customers and termed levying of service charges as "unfair trade practice". It has prohibited the eateries to collect such charges in any other name. The CPA also said hotels and restaurants must not link the entry of a customer and consumption of food to the service charge. The authority has said: "Service component is inherent in the price of food, which covers both the material and service. There is no restriction on hotels and restaurants to set the prices at which they want to offer food or beverages to customers. Charging anything other than the said amount would amount to unfair trade practice under the Act," said the guidelines.

History of freedom struggle not about a few people: Modi

Bhimavaram: Calling Andhra Pradesh "the land of warriors", PM Narendra Modi on Monday said besides revolutionary icons like Alluri Sitarama Raju, he has also produced great patriots and freedom fighters, like Pingali Venkayya (Kangabari), Hanumanthi, Kundukuri Veeresalingam and Vyayalavada Narasimha Reddy.

He said the history of the country's freedom struggle was not about a few years or some people, as he called for building a New India that reflected the dreams of the freedom fighters and one that ensured equal opportunities to all sections, PTI reported. "The light for freedom is not the history of a few years, a few regions or some people. This is the history of

Zubair sent to judicial custody

Pathikrit.Chakraborty@timesgroup.com

Lucknow: Delhi police on Monday brought AT Zubair to Sitapur in a case registered against him for allegedly hurting religious sentiments through his tweet on Mahant Bajrang Muni. Yati Narsinghnaandan Sarawati and Swami Anand Swaroop, reports Pathikrit Chakraborty.

The Sitapur court refused to allow Zubair to produce before a court at Sitapur in the above case. Zubair had allegedly referred to the three seers as "hate mongers" in his tweet. He was subsequently remanded Zubair to 14-day judicial custody, but he will remain in Delhi's Thar jail where he was lodged after his arrest on June 27 in another case of hurting religious sentiments. After 14 days, Zubair will be produced in the Sitapur court again. Police said Zubair was produced before a court at Sitapur in the above case. Zubair had allegedly referred to the three seers as "hate mongers" in his tweet. UP police had filed a chargesheet against Zubair in the case. A production warrant was issued after the chargesheet was filed against Zubair, who was booked under sections of the Information Technology Act, 2008. The IG said.

Bonny boy born hrs after docs say fetus dead

Pramed Dalakoti | TNN

Almora: A pregnant woman in Almora was told by doctors of a local government hospital that her baby had died in the womb and needed to be removed by surgery. But, a few hours later, in the ambulance on the way to another health facility, the 23-year-old woman went into labour and with the help of the medics present, gave birth to a healthy boy.

Terming it a "case of negligence" by Chakraborty Hospital staff, the woman's kin claimed that when she was told to go to Kanikhet for the surgery, her condition began to deteriorate.

Leela Devi, an anganwadi worker, said that doctors, after a brief examination, told the family on Sunday that the child's heartbeat had stopped. Leela added: "There was no facility of delivering a still-born," so the woman was referred elsewhere. Disappointed, her family took her in the ambulance, when after travelling for about 2 km, the woman gave birth to a healthy baby."

Too much Vitamin D can be toxic

Durgesh.Nandan.Jha@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: A 55-year-old man was referred to Delhi's Sri Rama Ram hospital (SRRH) recently with recurrent vomiting, loss of appetite and dizziness. His calcium and serum creatinine levels were dangerously low. Detailed investigation and anion gap history revealed the condition was caused due to an overdose of vitamin D.

The incidence of toxicity caused by vitamin D overdose is on the rise. Dr Atul Goglia, senior consultant, internal medicine, SRRH revealed.

"While sometimes the supplement is prescribed in higher dosage than needed, at times patients take it on their own, leading to toxicity. Dr Dinesh Khullar, chairman and head of department, nephrology, Max Super Speciality Hospital Saket, said he has seen at least one case of renal dysfunction caused by vitamin D overdose on a monthly basis.

CBSE airlifting answer sheets from flood-hit states

Manash.Gohain@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: The wait for CBSE Board exam results could get longer as the compilation process is yet to be completed by the Board which is yet to receive the answer sheets from all the centres. As per the initial plans, the results were supposed to be announced around July 10, 2022, but CBSE sources said there could be some delay.

While over 31 lakh (Class X and XII) Board exam candidates await their results, especially the Class XII students seeking admission to various undergraduate programmes, CBSE officials are non-committal as of now on any dates for declaration of results.

According to sources, CBSE is now getting the answer sheets airlifted from states like Assam which is reeling under floods. "From regions like the North East, especially Assam where there is floods, getting the evaluation done has been an issue and we are using helicopters to bring the answer sheets," said the official.
