Rahul attacks Modi: 'Cracked jokes while Manipur burned'

Defends Stand On Killing Of 'Bharat Mata'

New Delhi: Rubbishing the Prime Minister's reply to the no-confidence motion, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi said Narendra Modi "shamelessly laughed, cracked jokes and led a chorus of slogans from BJP benches", ignoring that the issue being discussed was the violence, killings and rapes in Manipur. Rahul said Modi spoke for 2.15 hours in Lok Sabha, but only two minutes on Manipur, and his speech was essentially about "him, his ambitions and his opinions", and not about putting out the fire in Manipur.

"The PM reflected the state, ridiculed its women and laughed at them... when I saw the PM laughing and cracking jokes, I could not understand how could the PM of India speak like this. Did he not realise what was happening in the country?" Rahul said at a presser, a day after Modi delivered the longest speech in the history of no-confidence motions, latest with jokes and attacks on the opposition.

Returning from where he had left off in Lok Sabha on Wednesday, when his barbs triggered a massive furore, Rahul said, "There is complete misunderstanding in the mind of Modi what the PM of India is. It is tragic to watch Modi. It's sad, because he does not understand what he is."

He added, "The PM was in good mood, the entire Cabinet was in giggles, and he was laughing. This should stop."

The Gandhi scion accused Modi of deliberately keeping Manipur on fire for political reasons, arguing that the PM has instruments with him, like the Army, which can put out the "nonsense" happening in the state in 3-4 days.

Rahul insisted he was speaking "literally and not metaphorically" when he said that "Bharat Mata has been killed in Manipur" by Modi and home minister Amit Shah. Explaining that he has never seen anything like what he witnessed in Manipur on his recent trip, Rahul revealed that he was welcomed by Meitei as well, but informed that any Kuki in his security detail would be killed. Similarly, Kuki areas warned against Meiteis in his entourage, he said. "When we went, we had to put Meiteis and Kukis away. The state has been killed and cleaved into two... the idea of Bharat Mata has been killed," he said.

Rahul said, "The PM is our representative... When a person becomes the PM, he should not speak like a petty politician... And watching the PM talking about Congress, the opposition, this really does not do justice to an Indian PM. I have seen PMs from Congress, BJP, Atal Bihari Vajpayee, Deve Gowda, none of them had ever done this."

He lamented that his remark "Bharat Mata" had been expunged from Parliament records, calling it an insult to the appellation which means a place of peace and harmony.

He said Modi should visit Manipur and tell the people that he is their PM and "the state will be taken seriously". Claiming that he will not comment on, despite knowing, the reasons why Modi does not want to visit Manipur, he said the PM can at least speak about the state.

Rahul slams Shah for retaining Biren as Manipur CM

Rahul slammed home minister Amit Shah's statement that Manipur CM was not sacked because he was cooperating. "Thousands of weapons have been looted under the Manipur CM. Did Shah want those weapons to be looted? The violence is continuing, does the Shah want it to continue? The CM cannot stop it, and Shah says, 'he is listening to us'. Does it mean that Manipur should continue to burn?" he said. TNN

PM doesn't like to see my face: Rahul

About the Lok Sabha TV training the cameras on him for only a small part of his speech in LS, Rahul Gandhi said, "There is a contradiction. May be the PM does not like to see my face on TV, but he talks about my video. Whatever, but I think he does not like to see my face on TV." TNN

Rahul has no dearth of young women, says Bihar Cong neta

Patna: Bihar Congress MLA Nitu Singh on Friday approved to give wing to Rahul Gandhi's flying kiss controversy in Parliament, saying the reinstated Wayanad MP had no dearth of young women to show such affection to rather than throw one "at a 38-year-old", reports Sheezan Sezani.

"Even if Rahul Gandhi had given a flying kiss in Parliament, how could (Union minister) Smriti Irani figure out that it was aimed at her?" the MLA from Hisua in Nawada said. A video in which Nitu purportedly accuses front of making "baseless allegations" aimed at "defaming" Rahul is circulating on social media.

She said the BJP leader had a problem with Rahul and demanded a probe into Irani's allegation. "We are not afraid of any such probe. Recently, our leader's Lok Sabha membership and his house were taken away. But he fought and his membership was reinstated".

Sharing Nitu's video on Twitter, BJP national spokesperson Shehzad Poonawalla called Congress "an anti-women party that can even defend Rahul's misdemeanours inside the House". On Thursday, 20 BJP women parliamentarians submitted a written complaint to LS speaker Om Birla, demanding stringent action against Rahul. The controversy erupted on August 9 during the no-confidence motion debate in LS, when Irani accused Rahul of a "misogynistic" act like blowing a kiss towards the treasury benches that had many women MPs.

Chaos over Manipur in Rajya Sabha again

New Delhi: Rajya Sabha proceedings were disrupted during the first half of the last day of the session as the opposition sought a debate on Manipur and also a statement by the PM. Over 10 hours had been lost during the monsoon session due to disruptions, affecting productivity, chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar said.

"Had you (opposition) agreed to the Chair on July 20 on a short-duration discussion on the issues, then this situation would not have come," Dhankhar said, adding, "Once again, we yielded to the allure of narrow interests and allowed disorder to be the 'new normal' in the proceedings of the House." Just unparliamentary words removed: BJP

Times News Network

New Delhi: BJP on Friday reacted Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's charge that 'Bharat Mata' in his speech was expunged from Lok Sabha proceedings, claiming that he lacks understanding and seems to have "lost his mental balance".

Parliamentary affairs minister Pralhad Joshi asserted that only some unparliamentary words and not 'Bharat Mata' were expunged from Rahul's address during the no-confidence motion debate on Wednesday and accused opposition parties of creating ruckus and not letting debate on several key bills happen during the session for political reasons.

"It appears from whatever statements he (Rahul) has made today that he has lost his mental balance," the minister said.

I&B minister Anurag Thakur alleged that the Congress left no stone untarned to disturb peace in Manipur for political mileage as Rahul is feeling "like a fish out of water" and yearning for power. Thakur alleged that it was the Nehru-Gandhi family which sowed the seeds of hatred in Manipur and other northeastern states for political gains.

"Home minister Amit Shah is the House (Lok Sabha) gave detailed information on Manipur and also brought a proposal for calling for peace. But the Congress tried to create disturbance in the House and left no stone unturned in creating disturbance in Manipur as well," he said.

The Information and broadcasting minister alleged that the Congress' hands are "soaked in the blood of thousands of people of northeastern states".

Thakur's remarks came after Gandhi said it does not behove the PM to laugh and crack jokes in Parliament when the state has been "on fire" for the past four months.

"The PM spoke for more than 30 minutes in Manipur even as the home minister had given a detailed account of the peace measures in the violence hit state. He cut a few jokes for Rahul as the Congress leader deserves nothing but jokes," a BJP functionary said, adding that the Congress leader should have come with a few suggestions but went on to insult "Bharat Mata".

'Weaponisation of privileges plan' is govt plan: Cong

Subodh.Dhillyal

New Delhi: As the opposition protested the suspension of Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury from Lok Sabha and two more opposition MPs from Rajya Sabha were added to the list as the day progressed, Congress warned of "weaponisation of privileges committee" as an insidious plan of the BJP government to target the rivals.

Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge, Rahul Gandhi, RSP's N K Premachandran, Thol Thirumavalavan (VCK), Mahua Maji (JMM), K Suresh, Ribi Eden (Congress), DMK's T Sumathy and TMC members among others, marched to the Ambedkar statue in the Parliament premises to protest Chowdhury's suspension. The INDIA bloc also boycotted the LS proceedings, after protesting by invoking the very words that irked the treasury benches a day earlier.

The Congress chief said the new trend of suspending members and then referring their cases to the privileges panel was dangerous, and in the case of Chowdhury, it was designed to stop him from chairing the Public Accounts Committee which discusses the CAG reports on government's misdoing of funds.

The extension of suspension of AAP's RS MP Sanjay Singh and the suspension of party's Raghav Chadha, with their cases referred to the privileges committee, angered the opposition. Leaders said they were suspended on flimsy grounds, and that Kharge will write to the RS chairman.

Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi with other MPs at Parliament House complex on Friday

Shashi Tharoor said "weaponising" the privileges panel allows a member to be suspended indefinitely beyond a session as is stipulated by the rules, till the panel submits up the case. Congress MP Manish Tewari said Chowdhury's suspension is a perfect case for approaching the Supreme Court.

But Congress deputy leader in LS Gaurav Gogoi said all the efforts of BJP to browbeat the opposition had come a cropper, and the monsoon session was a big victory for the anti-BJP camp.

Hike in financial aid for schemes to help ex-servicemen, kin

New Delhi. Defence minister Rajnath Singh on Friday approved a substantial hike in financial aid across various schemes aimed at welfare of ex-servicemen and their families.

The assistance under the vocational training grant scheme for widows of ex-servicemen has been increased from Rs 20,000 to Rs 30,000. "Non-pensioner ex-servicemen or their widows will now also receive an increased medical grant, with the amount being raised from Rs 50,000 to Rs 50,000. This augmentation recognises the valuable contributions made by non-pensioner veterans and their right to comprehensive medical support," a defence ministry official said. Similarly, the "ser-vice disease grant" for non-pensioner ex-servicemen or their widows has been enhanced from Rs 1.25 lakh to Rs 1.5 lakh.

At present, these schemes are being run by the Kendriya Sainik Board and funded from the Armed Forces Flag Day Fund. TNN

NDA discuss uniformity in the public discourse

Aiming a better coordination and uniformity in their public discourses, NDA parties took part in a day-long workshop at the Parliament Annexe Building on Friday, an exercise seen as furthering PM Narendra Modi's assertion on strengthening the alliance and highlighting its existence for three decades. In the meeting, emphasis was laid on establishing regular dialogue and coordination between the spokespersons of the constituent parties. The workshop was inaugurated by Union minister Smriti Irani. LJP(Ram Vilas) chief Chirag Paswan and Nishad Party chief Sanjay Nishad. Union Minister Smriti Irani and Chirag Paswan delivered the inaugural address. Union minister Anurag Thakur, Anupriya Patel and Ravi Shankar Prasad also addressed the session. TNN
